I, Stephen M. Burstein, am currently a member in good standing of the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, where I was admitted October 29, 2014. As of October 11, 2011, I am also a member in good standing of the highest court of the state of Colorado, where my principal practice is located.

I do not reside and am not regularly employed in Montana. If admitted pro hac vice, I will enlist Montana attorney Nicole L. Siefert to assist me with representation as required by local rule 83.1(D) regarding the appearance of attorneys pro hac vice.

Contemporaneously with the filing of this application, I will pay the required admission fee indicated on this court's website.

I am proficient in the electronic filing procedures utilized by the United States District Court for the District of Colorado.

I am in good standing and eligible to practice law in the courts referenced above. I have no prior or pending disciplinary actions regarding my practice of law in any jurisdiction, and none of my admissions have ever been revoked.

I will review and abide by the Local Rules of Practice for the District of Montana, General Orders, Administrative Procedures, and all technical and procedural requirements. I have never been held in contempt or otherwise disciplined for disobeying court rules or orders, and I have never been personally sanctioned.

This is my first time applying to appear pro hac vice in this court. If admitted, I understand that my admission is personal to me, alone, and that I will be held fully accountable for the conduct of this litigation in this court.

Contemporaneously with the filing of this application, I have complied with Montana Rule of Professional Conduct 8.5.
